In making such determination, the Court may consider:

(1) Whether the child or its family will be in need of special services for physical or mental disease or defect which the Tribe and its resources are unable to adequately provide, and

In making such determination, the Court may consider:

(1) Whether the child or its family will be in need of special services for physically or mental disease or defect which the Tribe and its resources are unable to adequately provide, and

(2) If transfer is tendered prior to adjudication whether the witnesses necessary to adjudicate the case will be available. If the witnesses will probably not appear, the Court should decline to accept the transfer until after the adjudication is completed, and

(3) Any other matters which may adversely affect the Tribe’s ability to provide treatment or necessary services to the family.

(C) A Tribal Court transferring a case to the Tribe's jurisdiction under subsection (A) of this Section shall transmit all documents and legal and social records, or certified copies thereof, pertaining to the case to the Tribal Juvenile Court, which shall proceed with the case as if a petition had been originally filed or the adjudication originally made in the Tribal Court.

(B) In making such transfers the Tribal Court may consider:

- (1) The best interests of the child, and
- (2) Any special needs or mental or physical disease or defects of the child and family and the ability of the tribe and the receiving jurisdiction to meet those needs, and
- (3) If transfer is requested prior to adjudication, whether witnesses necessary to the adjudication can attend in the receiving jurisdiction, and
- (4) Emotional, cultural, and social ties of the child and its family.

(C) Upon entering an order transferring a case as provided in this Section, the Court shall serve a certified copy of the Order of Transfer, the legal case file, and any social or police reports concerning the child's case to the court clerk of the receiving jurisdiction by certified mail, return receipt requested. The Juvenile Court may retain physical custody of the child pending an order or notice of acceptance from the receiving jurisdiction, and upon receiving such order on notice, may close the case file and dismiss the case subject to any necessary order for the protection of the child until completion of physical transfer to the receiving jurisdiction.

Section 151. Issuance and Return of Search Warrant.

(B) The search warrant shall be directed to any law enforcement officer authorized by law to execute it wherein the place to be searched is located.

(C) The warrant shall state the grounds or probable cause for its issuance and the names of the persons whose affidavits have been taken in support and will be issued in form substantially similar to other search warrants.

Section 160. Exclusion of Certain Statement by Alleged Delinquent.

(A) No statements or admissions of a child made as a result of interrogation of the child by law enforcement official concerning acts alleged to have been committed by the child which would constitute a crime if committed by an adult shall be admissible in evidence against that child unless a parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the child was present at such interrogation and the child and his parent, guardian, or legal custodian were advised of the child's right to remain silent, that any statements made may be used against him in a court of law, the right of the presence of an attorney during such interrogation, and the right to have counsel appointed if so requested at the time of the interrogation if available at no fee except that, if, to the extent such counsel is available for appointment at no fee, legal counsel representing the child is present at such interrogation, such statements or admissions may be admissible in evidence even though the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian was not present.

(B) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (A) of this Section, statements or admissions of a child shall not be inadmissible in evidence by reason of the absence of a parent, guardian, or legal custodian if the child is emancipated from the parent, guardian or legal custodian or if the child is a runaway from outside the Court's jurisdiction and is of sufficient age and understanding.

(B) The Tribe shall have the same right to appeal questions of law in delinquency cases as exists in criminal cases.

Section 191. Voluntary Foster Care Authorized.

In order to provide better treatment for a family's problems and to better protect children, the Department is authorized to accept a child for foster care when:

(A) The parent, guardian, or other physical or legal custodian has consented to such foster care in writing before a Judge of a court of competent jurisdiction by the Judge's certificate that the terms and conditions, and consequences of such consent were fully explained in detail and fully understood in English, or that it was interpreted into a language which was understood.

(B) A consent to foster care placement may be withdrawn by the person giving same, the parent or other legal guardian having legal custody, or a traditional custodian at any time and the child shall be returned to the authorized person requesting the child's release within forty-eight (48) hours.

CHAPTER TWO

EMERGENCY CUSTODY

Section 201. Taking Children Into Custody.

(A) A child may be taken into temporary custody by a law enforcement officer without order of the Court when there are reasonable grounds to believe that:

(1) He has committed an act which would be a major crime, misdemeanor, or Tribal Ordinance violation if committed by an adult; except that wildlife, parks, outdoor recreation, and traffic violations shall be handled as otherwise provided by law;

(2) He has abandoned, lost, or seriously endangered his surroundings or seriously endangers others and immediate removal appears to be necessary for his protection or the protection of others; or

(3) He has run away or escaped from the parents, guardian, or legal custodian;

(4) He has violated the conditions of probation and he is under the continuing jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court.

(B) A child may be detained temporarily without an order of the Court by an adult other than a law enforcement officer if the child has committed or is committing an act in the presence of such adult which would be a violation of any Federal or Tribal law, other than a violation of traffic and game and fish laws or regulations, if committed by an adult. Any person detaining a child shall notify, without unnecessary delay, a law enforcement officer, who shall assume custody of said child.

(C) A medical doctor, physician, or similar licensed practitioner of medicine may temporarily detain without an order of the Court a child brought before him for treatment whom he reasonably suspects to be the victim of child abuse. Any person detaining a child due to possible child abuse shall notify, without unnecessary delay, a law enforcement officer who shall assume custody of the child. The law enforcement officer assuming custody shall have the authority to consent to the admission of the child to a medical facility and to consent to emergency medical treatment necessary to protect the life or health of the child from danger or imminent harm. The opinion of two or more licensed medical doctors that treatment for a condition could not reasonably be delayed for a period long enough to contact a Judge for an emergency medical treatment order shall create a presumption that the law enforcement officer properly gave his consent to treatment of the child.

(D) In all other cases, a child may be taken into custody only upon an order of the Court.

(E) The taking of a child into temporary custody under this Section is not an arrest nor does it constitute a police record.

Section 202. Notification of Parents.

When a child is taken into temporary custody, the officer shall notify a parent, guardian, or legal custodian without unnecessary delay and inform him that, if the child is placed in detention, all parties have a right to a prompt hearing to determine whether the child is to be detained further. Such notification may be made to a person with whom the child is residing if a parent, guardian, or legal custodian cannot be located. If the officer taking the child into custody is unable to make such notification, it may be made by any other law enforcement officer, probation counselor, detention center counselor, or jailor in whose physical custody the child is placed.

Section 203. Notification of Court Officers.

Whenever an officer or other person takes a child to a detention or shelter facility, or admits a child to a medical facility pursuant to Section 201(C), and determines not to release said child pursuant to Section 210 (B), the officer or other person who took the child to a detention or shelter facility shall notify the Tribal District Attorney, the Tribal Social Services Department, and any agency or persons so designated by the Court at the earliest opportunity that the child has been taken into custody and where he has been taken. He shall also promptly file a brief written report with the Tribal District Attorney, the Tribal Social Services Department, and any agency or person so designated by the Court stating the facts which led to the child being taken into custody and the reason why the child was not released. This report shall be filed within twenty-four hours excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays.

Sections 204-209. RESERVED.

Section 210. Release of Detained Child.

(A) Except as provided in paragraph (B) of this Section, a child shall not be detained by law enforcement officials any longer than is reasonably necessary to obtain his name, age, residence and other necessary information and to contact his parents, guardian, or legal custodian.

(B) The child shall be released to the care of his parents or other responsible adult, unless his immediate welfare or the protection of the community requires that he be detained. The parent or other person to whom the child is released may be required to sign a written promise, on forms supplied by the Court, to bring the child to the Court at a time set or to be set by the Court.

(C) If he is not released as provided in subsection (B) of this Section, he shall be taken directly to the Court or to the place of detention or shelter approved by the department and designated by the Court without unnecessary delay unless admitted to a facility for medical treatment pursuant to Section 201 (C) of this Title.

(D) No child shall be detained pursuant to subsection (B) for a period exceeding seventy-two hours exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays without an order of the Court. If no Court order is issued within such time, the child must be released.

(E) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (D) of this Section, a child who is alleged to be a runaway from another Tribal jurisdiction or a state, may be held in a detention facility or jail up to seven days, during which time arrangements shall be made for returning the child to his parent or legal custodian.

Section 211. Special Release Rule for Major Offenses.

(A) No child taken to a detention or shelter facility without a Court order as the result of an allegedly delinquent act which would constitute a major crime or offense punishable by banishment if committed by an adult shall be released from such facility if in writing a law enforcement agency has requested that a detention hearing be held to determine whether the child's immediate welfare or the protection of the community requires that he be detained. No such child shall thereafter be released from detention except after a hearing, reasonable advanced notice of which has been given to the Tribal District Attorney, alleging new circumstances concerning the further detention of the child.

(B) When, following a detention hearing as provided for by subsection (A) of this Section, the Court orders further detention of a child, a petition alleging the child to be delinquent shall be filed with the Court without unnecessary delay if one has not been previously filed, and the child shall be held in detention pending a hearing on the petition.

(C) Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving a child of the right to bail under the same circumstances as an adult.

Section 212. Court Ordered Release.

At any time prior to the filing of a petition and entry of an emergency custody order on that petition, the Court may order the release of any child, except children being held pursuant to Section 205 of this Title from detention or shelter care without holding a hearing, either without restriction or upon written promise of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian to bring the child to the Court at a time set or to be set by the Court.

Section 213. Extension of Detention Period.

For good cause shown, the Court may extend the time period during which a child may be detained without a petition and Court order for a period not exceeding five working days. Such extension shall be in writing or may be made verbally and reduced to writing within twenty-four hours.

Sections 214-219. RESERVED.

Section 220. Detention and Shelter.

(A) A child who must be taken from his home but who does require physical restriction shall be given temporary care in a shelter facility approved by the Department and designated by the Court or the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Department of Social Services and shall not be placed in detention.

(B) No child under the age of fourteen and, except upon the order of the Court, no child fourteen years of age or older and under sixteen years of age shall be detained in a jail, lockup, or other place used for confinement of adult offenders or persons charged with crime. The exception shall be used by the Court only if no other suitable place of confinement is available.

(C) A child fourteen years of age or older shall be detained separately from adult offenders or persons charged with crime, including any child ordered by the Court to be held for criminal proceedings.

(D) the official in charge of a jail or other facility for the detention of adult offenders or persons charged with crime shall inform the Court and Tribal District Attorney immediately when a child who is or appears to be under the age eighteen is received at the facility, except for a child ordered by the Court to be held for criminal proceedings.

Section 221. Emergency Shelter in Child's Home.

(A) Upon application of a Tribal or Bureau of Social Services Department, the Court may find that it is not necessary to remove a child from his home to a temporary shelter facility and may provide temporary shelter in the child's home by authorizing a representative of the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Department of Social Services, which has emergency caretaker services available, to remain in the child's home with the child until a parent, or legal guardian, or relative of the child enters the home and expresses willingness and has the apparent ability, as determined by the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Department of Social Services, to resume charge of the child, but in no event shall such period of time exceed seventy-two hours. In the case of a relative, the relative is to assume charge of the child until a parent or legal guardian enters the home and expresses willingness and has the apparent ability, as determined by the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Department of Social Services, to resume charge of the child.

(B) The director of the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Department of Social Services shall designate in writing the representatives of these departments authorized to perform such duties.

(C) The Court order allowing emergency shelter in the child's home may be written or oral, provided, that if consent is given verbally, the Judge shall reduce the consent given to writing within twenty-four hours.

Sections 222-229. RESERVED.Section 230. Court Ordered Medical Treatment.

(A) At any time after a child is taken into custody with or without a Court order and prior to adjudication on the merits:

(1) When the Court finds that emergency medical, surgical, or dental treatment is required for a child in Tribal custody it may authorize such treatment or care if the parents, guardian, or legal custodian are not immediately available to give their consent or to show cause why such treatment should not be ordered. The power to consent to emergency medical care may be delegated by the Court to the agency or person having physical custody of the child pursuant to this Title or pursuant to Court order.

(2) After making a reasonable effort to obtain the consent of the parent, guardian, or other legal custodian, and after a hearing on notice, the Court may authorize or consent to non-emergency medical, surgical, or dental treatment or care for a child in Tribal custody.

(B) After a child has been adjudicated a ward of the Court, the Court may consent to any necessary emergency, preventive, or general medical, surgical, or dental treatment or care, or may delegate the authority to consent thereto to the agency or person having custody of the child.

Section 231. Court Ordered Commitment for Observation.

If it appears that any child being held in detention or shelter may be mentally ill, developmentally disabled, or has sustained any trauma which may result in a delayed medical danger or injury, the Court shall place the child in a designated facility approved by the Court for seventy-two hour treatment and evaluation. Upon the advice of a physician, the treatment and evaluation period may be extended for a period not exceeding ten days.

CHAPTER THREEADJUDICATION*Section 301. Court Intake.

(A) Whenever it appears to a law enforcement officer or any other person that a child is or appears to be within the Court's jurisdiction, by reason of delinquency, need of supervision, neglect, or deprivation, the law enforcement officer or other person may refer the matter conferring or appearing to confer jurisdiction to the Tribal Department, Child Welfare officer, who shall determine whether the interest of the child or of the community require that further action be taken.

(B) If the Child Welfare officer determines that the interests of the child or of the community require that court action be taken, he shall request in writing to the Tribal District Attorney to file a petition and deliver a copy to the entire case file to the District Attorney.

(C) If the Child Welfare officer is unable to determine whether interests of the child or of the Tribe require that court action be taken from information available to him, he may refer the matter to the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Department of Social Services, a Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs law enforcement agency or other agency designated by the Court for a preliminary investigation and recommendations as to filing a petition or as to initiating an informal adjustment pursuant to this Title.

(D) If the Child Welfare officer determines that the interests of the child or of the Tribe do not require court action, the Department may offer such social services and make such referrals to other agencies as may be feasible to help the family with any problems they may have.

Section 302. District Attorney Intake.

(A) Upon receiving a request to file a petition and the accompanying reports and files from the Child Welfare officer, the District Attorney shall review the case file, reports, and any witness statements to determine if there is sufficient evidence which will be admissible under the Tribal Rules of Evidence to establish the jurisdiction of the Tribal Juvenile Court over the child.

(B) If the District Attorney determines that there is not sufficient evidence available to establish the jurisdiction of the Tribal Juvenile Court over the child, he shall, in writing, refuse to file the requested petition, or, in his discretion, may request the Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Social Services Department or Law Enforcement Agency to conduct a further investigation into the matter.

(C) If the District Attorney determines that sufficient evidence is available to establish the jurisdiction of the Tribal Juvenile Court over the child, he shall file a petition concerning the child.

Section 303. Diversion by Contract.

(A) Prior to the filing of a Petition, either the Child Welfare officer, or the District Attorney with the consent of the Child Welfare officer may divert any children's case, except a case subject to Section 211 or Section 306 of this Title from the court process.

(B) Diversion shall be made by entering into a contract with the child's parents, guardian, or other custodian whereby the parent, guardian or other custodian agrees to undergo specified treatment for the condition notices, including an agreement to do or refrain from doing certain acts and the Child Welfare officer or District Attorney on behalf of the Tribe agrees not to file a petition in the case so long as the parent, guardian, or other custodian comply with the contract.

- (1) the specific facts or allegations, including dates, which gave rise to the condition addressed by the contract;
- (2) the specific treatment programs the parents, guardian, or custodian agree to successfully complete and their duration;
- (3) the specific facts which the parents, guardian, or custodian agree to do or to refrain from doing;
- (4) the specific treatment or other social services to be offered by the Tribe or the Bureau of Indian Affairs and accepted by the family;
- (5) A fixed, limited time for the contract to run not exceeding one year;
- (6) that the Tribe will not file a petition on the subject of the contract for the facts or allegations stated if the parents, guardian, or custodian comply with the contract terms for the full term of the contract;
- (7) that each party has received a copy of the contract.

(C) No diversion contract may place physical custody in any person or agency other than the parents, guardian, or other legal custodian unless it bears the approval in writing of a Judge or the Juvenile Court.

Section 304. Diversion Contract Inadmissible.

The diversion contract and any statements or admissions of the parties made in negotiating or fulfilling the terms of the contract are inadmissible as evidence, except, that the parents, guardian, or custodian may prove the contract and show their compliance with the terms thereof as a defense to a petition filed concerning the matter of the contract. Upon a showing of compliance with the terms of the contract, the Court shall dismiss the petition unless it determines by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the child is in imminent danger of severe physical or mental harm. Proof of the contract shall not be an admission of the parents, guardian, or custodian of any of the facts alleged therein.

Section 305. Diversion by Consent Decree.

(A) After filing of a petition, the District Attorney, with the consent of the Child Welfare officer, may divert any children's case, except a case subject to Section 211 or Section 306 of this Title from the adjudicatory process with the consent of the respondents and the Court by obtaining Consent Decree if:

- (1) The Court has informed the child and his parents, guardian, or legal custodian of their rights to:
 - (i) deny the allegations of the petition and require the Tribe to prove each allegation by admissible evidence;

- (ii) confront and cross-examine the witnesses against them and to call witnesses on their own behalf;
- (iii) refuse to testify against themselves or each other in delinquency cases;
- (iv) a trial by a jury of six persons at the adjudicatory state, where a jury trial is available;
- (v) be represented by counsel at their own expense at each stage of the proceedings, and, to the extent counsel is available at no fee, to have counsel appointed for them if they cannot afford private counsel;
- (vi) and the Court believed they understand their rights.

(2) Written consent to the decree is obtained from the parents, guardian, or legal custodian and the child if of sufficient age and understanding. The consent given for a consent Decree does not constitute an admission for purposes of adjudication.

(3) The Tribal or Bureau of Indian Affairs Social Service Department has prepared a treatment plan for the family to be incorporated into the Consent Decree which distinctly states:

- (i) the specific treatment programs the parents, guardian, or custodian, or child agree to successfully complete and their duration;
- (ii) the specific treatment or other social services to be offered by the Tribe or the Bureau of Indian Affairs and accepted by the family;
- (iii) the specific acts which the parents, guardian, or custodian or child agree to do or to refrain from doing;
- (iv) the person or agency to be vested with custody of the child if the child cannot remain in its own home, the specific provisions of (i), (ii) and (iii) above which must be completed or accomplished for a specific duration before the child is returned to its own home, and the period of supervision of the child in its own home.

(B) After all parties have consented, the Court shall review the Treatment Plan and if the Court agrees that the plan is satisfactory, shall order all parties by the Consent Decree to abide by the provisions of the Treatment Plan. The Consent Decree shall be monitored and modified as in other dispositions, provided, that if the family fails to comply with the treatment plan, the Court, on motion of the District Attorney, shall proceed with the adjudication.

(C) A Consent Decree shall remain in effect for not exceeding one year, provided, that upon notice of hearing, the Court may extend the force of the Decree for an additional term of one year with the consent of the parties. The adjudication shall be continued during the term of the Consent Decree and thereafter dismissed if the Decree is complied with.

Section 306. Limitation on Diversions.

Section 340. Adjudicatory Hearing.

(A) At the adjudicatory hearing, which shall be conducted as provided in the rules of procedure, except that the rules of criminal procedure shall apply in delinquency cases, the Court shall consider whether the allegations of the petition are supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning delinquent children or children in need of supervision or by a preponderance of the evidence in cases concerning neglected or dependent children; except that jurisdictional matters of the age and residence of the child shall be deemed admitted by or on behalf of the child unless specifically denied prior to the adjudicatory hearing.

(B) When it appears that the evidence presented at the hearing discloses issues not raised in the petition, the Court may proceed immediately to consider the additional or different matters raised by the evidence if the parties consent.

(C) In such event, the court, on the motion of any interested party or on its own motion, shall order the petition to be amended to conform to the evidence.

(D) If the amendment results in a substantial departure from the original allegations in the petition, the Court shall continue the hearing on the motion of any interested party, or the Court may grant a continuance on its own motion if it finds it to be in the best interests of the child or any other party to the proceedings.

Section 341. Mentally Ill and Developmentally Disabled Children.

(A) If it appears from the evidence presented at an adjudicatory hearing or otherwise that the child may be mentally ill or developmentally disabled, as these terms are defined in this section, the Court shall order that the child be examined by a physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist and may place the child in a hospital or other suitable facility for the purpose of examination for a period not to exceed thirty days.

(B) A suitable facility for the purpose of examination shall be a facility designated by the Court for treatment and evaluation, but neither a Tribal, city or county jail nor a detention facility shall be considered a suitable facility under any circumstances.

(C) If the report of the examination made pursuant to subsection (A) of this Section states that the child is mentally ill to the extent that hospitalization or institutional confinement and treatment is required, the Court may order such hospitalization, institutional confinement, or treatment prior to or after adjudication.

(D) The Court may dismiss the original petition when a child who has been ordered to receive treatment is no longer receiving treatment.

(E) The Court shall set a time for resuming the hearing on the original petition when:

(1) the report of the examination made pursuant to subsection (A) of this Section states that the child is not mentally ill to the extent that hospitalization or institutional confinement and treatment are required;

(2) the child is found not to be mentally ill;

(3) the report of the examination made pursuant to subsection (A) of this Section states that the child is developmentally disabled but not mentally ill.

Section 343. Dismissal of Petition.

When the court finds that the allegations of the petition are not supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning delinquent children or children in need of supervision or by a preponderance of the evidence in cases concerning neglected or dependent children, the Court shall order the petition dismissed and the child discharged from any detention or restriction previously ordered. His parents, guardian, or other legal custodian shall also be discharged from any restriction or other previous temporary order.

Section 344. Sustaining Petition.

When the Court finds that the allegations of the petition are supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning delinquent children or children in need of supervision or by a preponderance of the evidence in cases concerning neglect or dependent children, the Court shall sustain the petition and make an order of adjudication setting forth whether the child is delinquent, in need of supervision, or neglected or dependent and making the child a ward of the Court. In cases concerning neglected or dependent children, evidence that child abuse or non-accidental injury has occurred shall constitute prima facie evidence that such child is neglected or dependent and such evidence shall be sufficient to support an adjudication under this Section.

Section 345. Temporary Order.

Upon sustaining a petition, the Court shall make such dispositional orders as may be necessary to protect the child prior to the dispositional hearing which shall be held without undue delay.

CHAPTER FOUR

DISPOSITION

Section 401. Dispositional Hearing.

After making an order of adjudication, finding the child to be a ward of the Court, the court shall hear evidence on the question of the proper disposition best serving the interests of the child and the Tribe at a hearing scheduled for that purpose.

Section 402. Social Studies and Reports.

(A) The Court may order any agency within its jurisdiction a request or any other agency to prepare and submit to the Court after the adjudication and prior to disposition a social study, home study, family or medical history or other reports which may be helpful in determining proper treatment and disposition for the family.

(C) Such reports shall be filed with the Court and a copy delivered to the parties or their attorney at least five days prior to the dispositional hearing.

Section 403. Treatment Plan.

(B) The treatment plan shall contain at a minimum:

- (1) a brief social and family history;
- (2) a brief statement of the causes of the Court exercising its jurisdiction;
- (3) the specific treatment programs the family should be required to complete, their duration, and what is expected to be accomplished;
- (4) the specific actions the parents, guardian, legal custodian or child should be ordered to do or refrain from doing and the reasons therefore;

The court may have the child examined by a physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist, and the Court may place the child in a hospital or other suitable facility for this purpose.

Section 405. Hearing Process.

The purpose of the dispositional hearing is for the Court to determine the treatment which should be ordered to attempt to correct the problems which led to the adjudication, and to provide for the health, welfare, and safety of the child during the treatment period or, if treatment cannot or does not correct the problems after actual attempts have been made to do so, to provide for the long term health, welfare, and safety of the child.

Section 406. Hearing Informal.

The dispositional hearing shall be informal and the general rules of procedure and evidence shall not apply so that all pertinent information may be considered in determining treatment and disposition. However, when feasible, the Court shall order the writer of any report or study to appear and answer questions regarding that report if it be challenged by any party.

Section 407. Continuance.

(A) The Court may continue the dispositional hearing, either on its own motion or on the motion of any interested party, for a reasonable period to receive reports or other evidence, but the Court shall continue the hearing for good cause on the motion of any interested party in any case where the termination of the parent-child relationship is a possible remedy.

(B) If the hearing is continued, the Court shall make an appropriate order for detention of the child or for his release in the custody of his parents, guardian, or other responsible person or agency under such conditions of supervision as the Court may impose during the continuance.

(C) In scheduling investigations and hearings, the Court shall give priority to proceedings concerning a child who is in detention or who has otherwise been removed from his home before an order of disposition has been made.

Section 408. Order of Protection.

(A) The Court may make an order of protection in assistance of, or as a condition of, any decree of disposition authorized by this Article. The order of protection may set forth reasonable conditions of behavior to be observed for a specified period by the parent, guardian, or any other person who is party to the proceeding.

 - (iii) to which the child has been referred by the court;
- (6) to refrain from acts of commission or omission that tend to make a home an improper place for a child; or
- (7) to perform any legal obligation of support.

(C) When such an order of protection is made applicable to a parent or guardian, it may specifically require his active participation in the rehabilitation process and may impose specific requirements upon such parent or guardian, subject to the penalty of contempt for failure to comply with such order without good cause, as provided in subsection (E) of this Section.

(D) After notice and opportunity for hearing is given to a person subject to an order of protection, the order may be terminated, modified, or extended for a specified period of time if the Court finds that the best interests of the child and the Tribe will be served thereby.

(E) A person failing to comply with an order of protection without good cause may be found in contempt of court.

In making such determinations, the Court shall consider, but not limited to, the following:

At such hearing, the agency or individual vested with custody of the child shall report to the guardian ad litem and shall submit a written report with recommendations to the Court, based upon an independent investigation, for the best disposition of the child.

(B) No order or decree entered pursuant to this Article shall dis-entitle a child to any benefit due him from any third person, including, but not limited to, any Indian Tribe, any agency, any state, or the United States.

(C) After the termination of a parent-child legal relationship, the former parent is not entitled to any notice of proceedings for the adoption of the child by another, nor has he any right to object to the adoption or to otherwise participate in such proceedings. (History: Repealed by Resolution I-88-15, 1987; Amended by Resolution I-90-10, October 31, 1989.)

Section 459. Appeals.

(A) Appeals, of court decrees made under an order terminating parental rights shall be given precedence on the calendar of the appellate court over all other matters unless otherwise provided by law.

(B) whenever an appeal is made concerning termination of parental rights, an indigent parent, upon request, subject to the availability of funds, may be provided a transcript of the trial proceeding for the appeal at the expense of the Tribe to be paid from the court fund. (History: Repealed by Resolution I-88-15, October 15, 1987; Amended by Resolution I-90-10, October 31, 1989.)

Section 460. Traditional Custodian's and Grandparents' Rights.

(A) No dispositional order or decree including termination of parental rights and adoption shall divest the child's traditional custodians or grandparents of their right to reasonable visitation with the child and their duty to provide instruction and training to the child regarding Tribal customs and traditions or their duty to provide the necessities of life for the child should the parents be unable to do so, unless those rights and duties have been extinguished in a proceeding in which the individual was a party, provided that adoptive traditional custodians shall also succeed to these rights and duties.

(B) The rights and duties of the traditional custodians and grandparents may be enforced by court order whenever it appears in the child's best interest to do so, provided that all interested parties shall be given notice and an opportunity to be heard. (History: Amended by Resolution I-88-15, October 15, 1987; Amended by Resolution I-90-10, October 31, 1989.)

Section 461. Orders for Support.

(C) When the Tribe, or some other agency is paying for foster care for such child, the contribution of the parent shall be paid to the Court Clerk and dispensed by Court order to that agency or the Tribe as may be necessary by law or appropriate in the circumstances. In all cases of placement with a particular family, the contribution shall be paid to that family by the court Clerk subject to the supervision of the Court to prevent waste or misuse of such funds.

CHAPTER FIVE

CHILD ABUSE

Section 501. Legislative Purpose.

The Tribal Legislative Body hereby declares that the complete reporting of child abuse is a matter of Tribal concern and that in enacting this Chapter it is the intent of the Tribe to protect the children within the jurisdiction of the Tribe and to offer protective services in order to prevent any further harm to a child suffering from abuse. It is the further intent of the Tribe that the various federal, state, and Tribal medical, mental health, education and social services agencies impacting on child welfare matters find a common purpose through cooperative participation in the child protection teams created in this Chapter.

Section 502. Definitions.

As used in this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(A) “Abuse” or “child abuse or neglect” means an act of omission in one of the following categories which seriously threatens the health or welfare of a child:

Section 507. Reporting Procedures.

(A) reports of known or suspected child abuse or neglect made pursuant to this Chapter shall be made immediately to the tribal department or law enforcement agency and shall be followed promptly by a written report prepared by those persons required to report. The receiving agency shall forward a copy of its own report to the central registry on forms supplied by the tribal department.

(D) A written report from persons or officials required by this Chapter to report known or suspected child abuse or neglect shall be admissible as evidence in any proceeding related to child abuse.

Section 508. Action Upon Receipt of Report.

(A) The receiving agency shall make a thorough investigation immediately upon receipt of any report of known or suspected child abuse or neglect. The immediate concern of such investigation shall be the protection of the child.

(B) The investigation, to the extent that it is reasonably possible, shall include:

(C) The investigation shall, at a minimum, include a visit to the child’s place of residence or place of custody and to the location of the alleged abuse or neglect and an interview with or observance of the child reportedly having been abused or neglected. If admission to the child’s place of residence cannot be obtained, the Juvenile Court, upon good cause shown, shall order the responsible person to allow the interview, examination and investigation.

(D) The Tribal Department shall be the receiving agency responsible for the coordination of all investigations of all reports of known or suspected child abuse or neglect. The Tribal Department shall arrange for such investigation to be conducted by persons trained to conduct either the complete investigation or such parts thereof as may be assigned. The Tribal Department may conduct the investigation independently or in conjunction with another appropriate agency or may arrange for the initial investigation to be conducted by another agency with personnel having appropriate training and skill. The Tribal Department shall provide for persons to be continuously available to respond to such reports. Tribes and state and federal agencies may cooperate to fulfill the requirements of this subsection. As used in this subsection, “continuously available” means the assignment of a person to be near an operable telephone not necessarily located in the premises ordinarily used for business by the Tribal Department or to have such arrangements made through agreements with local law enforcement agencies.

(E) Upon receipt of a report, if the Tribal Department reasonably believes abuse or neglect has occurred, it shall immediately offer social services to the child who is the subject of the report and his family. If, before the investigation is completed, the opinion of the investigators is that assistance of the Tribal law enforcement agency is necessary for the protection of the child or other children under the same care, the Tribal law enforcement agency and the Tribal District Attorney shall be notified. If immediate removal is necessary to protect the child or other children under the same care from further abuse, the child or children may be placed in protective custody in accordance with Tribal law.

(F) If a local law enforcement agency receives a report of known or suspected child abuse or neglect, it shall first attempt to contact the Tribal Department in order to refer the case for investigation. If the local law enforcement agency is unable to contact the Tribal Department, it shall make a complete investigation and may request the Tribal District Attorney to institute appropriate legal proceedings on behalf of the subject child or other children under the same care. The Tribal law enforcement agency, upon receipt of a report and upon completion of any investigation it may undertake, shall immediately forward a summary of the investigatory data plus all relevant documents to the Tribal Department.

Section 509. Child Protection Teams.

It is the intent of this legislation to encourage the creation of one or more child protection teams. The Chief Judge of the Court shall have responsibility for inaugurating the child protection team.

(A) The child protection team shall review the files and other records of the case, including the diagnostic, prognostic, and treatment services being offered to the family in connection with the reported abuse.

(B) At each meeting, each member of the child protection team shall be provided with all available records and reports on each case to be considered.

(C) The public, in a non-participatory role, shall be permitted to attend those portions of child protection team meetings concerned with mandatory team discussions of public and private agencies' responses to each report of child abuse and neglect being considered by the team, as well as the team's recommendations related to public-agency responses. In all its public discussions, the team shall not publicly disclose the names or addresses and identifying information relating to the children, families, or informants in those cases.

(D) At the beginning of the public discussion of each case, a designated team member shall publicly state the following information, arrived at by consensus of the team: Whether the case involves mild, moderate, or severe abuse or neglect or no abuse or neglect; whether the child is an infant, a toddler, a preschool or school-aged child, or a teenager and the sex of the child; the date of the initial report and the specific agency to which the report was made; and the dates of subsequent reports to specific social service agencies, law enforcement agencies, or other agencies. In no case shall the informant's name or other identifying information about the informant be publicly revealed. The team shall also state publicly whether the child was hospitalized and whether the child's medical records were checked.

(E) At this public session, and immediately after any executive sessions at which a child abuse or neglect case is discussed, the child protection team shall publicly review the responses of public and private agencies to each report of child abuse or neglect, shall publicly state whether such responses were timely, adequate, and in compliance with provisions of this Article, and shall publicly report non-identifying information relating to any inadequate responses, specifically indicating the public and private agencies involved.

(F) After this mandatory public discussion of agency responses, the child protection team shall go into executive session upon the vote of a majority of the team members to consider the identifying details of the case being discussed, to discuss confidential reports, including but not limited to the reports of physicians and psychiatrists, or when the members of the team desire to act as an advisory body concerning the details of treatment or evaluation programs. The team shall state publicly, before going into executive session, its reasons for doing so. Any recommendation based on information presented in the executive sessions shall be discussed and formulated at the immediately succeeding public session of the team, without publicly revealing identifying details of the case.

(G) At the team’s next regularly scheduled meeting, or at the earliest possible time, the team shall publicly report whether the lapses and inadequacies discovered earlier in the child protection system have been corrected.

(H) The team shall make a report of its recommendations to the Tribal Department with suggestions for further action or stating that the team has no recommendations or suggestions. Tribes and state and federal agencies may cooperate in meeting the requirements of this subsection.

(I) Each member of the team shall be appointed by the agency he represents, and each team member shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing agency; except that the director of the Tribal Department shall appoint the representatives of the law community, and shall actively recruit all interested individuals and consider their applications for appointment as lay-community representatives on the team.

(J) The director of the Tribal Department or his designee shall be deemed to be the coordinator of the child protection team.

(K) The coordinator shall forward a copy of all reports of child abuse to the child protection team. The coordinator shall forward a copy of the investigatory report and all relevant materials to the child protection team as soon as they become available. The child protection team shall meet no later than one week after receipt of a report to evaluate such report of child abuse. The coordinator shall make and complete, within ninety (90) days of receipt of a report initiating an investigation of a case of child abuse, a follow-up report, including services offered and accepted and any recommendation of the child protection team, to offered and accepted services and any recommendations of the child protection team, to the central registry on forms supplied by the Tribal department for that purpose.

Section 510. Immunity from Liability.

Any person participating in good faith in the making of a report or in a judicial proceeding held pursuant to this Title, the taking of color photographs or x-rays, or the placing in temporary custody of a child pursuant to this Chapter or otherwise performing his duties or acting pursuant to this Act, shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of such reporting. For the purpose of any proceedings, civil or criminal, the good faith of any person reporting child abuse, any person taking color photographs of x-rays, and any person who has legal authority to place a child in protective custody, shall be presumed . . .

Section 511. Child Abuse and Child Neglect Diversion Program.

(A) The Tribal District Attorney, upon recommendation of the Tribal Department or any person, may withhold filing a case against any person accused or suspected of child abuse or neglect and refer that person to a non-judicial source of treatment or assistance, upon conditions set forth by the Tribal Department and the Tribal District Attorney. If a person is so diverted from the criminal justice system, the Tribal District Attorney shall not file charges in connection with the case if the person participates to the satisfaction of the Tribal Department and the tribal District Attorney in the diversion program offered.

(B) The initial diversion shall be for a period of not to exceed two (2) years. This diversion period may be extended for one (1) additional one-year period by the Tribal District Attorney if necessary. Decisions regarding extending diversion time periods shall be made following review of the person diverted by the Tribal District Attorney and the Tribal Department.

(C) If the person diverted successfully completes the diversion program to the satisfaction of the Tribal Department and the Tribal District Attorney, he shall be released from the terms and conditions of the program, and no criminal filing for the case shall be made against him.

(D) Participating by a person accused or suspected of child abuse in any diversion program shall be voluntary.

Section 512. Evidence Not Privileged.

The privileged communication between patient and physician and between husband and wife shall not be a ground for excluding evidence in any judicial proceedings resulting from a report pursuant to this Chapter.

Section 513. Court Proceedings – Guardian Ad Litem.

(A) In any proceeding initiated pursuant to this Section, the Court shall name as respondents all persons alleged by the petition to be legal or actual physical custodians or guardians of the child. In every such case, the responsible person shall be named as respondent. Summons shall be issued for all named respondents.

(B) The Court in every case filed under this Chapter shall appoint, at no fee, a guardian ad litem at the first appearance of the case in Court. The guardian ad litem shall be provided with all reports relevant to the case made to or by the agency or person pursuant to this Chapter and with reports of any examination of the responsible person made pursuant to this Chapter and with reports of any examination of the responsible person made pursuant to this Section. The Court or the social services worker assigned to the case shall advise the guardian ad litem of significant developments in the case, particularly any further abuse or neglect of the child involved. The guardian ad litem shall be charged in general with the representation of the child's interest. To that end he shall make such further investigations as he deems necessary to ascertain the facts, talk with or observe the child involved, interview witnesses and the foster parents of the child, and examine and cross-examine witnesses in both the adjudicatory and dispositional hearings and may introduce and examine his own witnesses, make recommendations to the Court concerning the child's welfare, and participate further in the proceedings to the degree necessary to adequately represent the child.

(C) If the prayer of the petition is granted, the costs of this proceedings, including guardian ad litem and expert witnesses fees, may be charged by the Court against the respondent.

(D) It is not necessary that the guardian ad litem be an attorney.

Section 514. Central Registry.

(A) There shall be established a central registry of child protection in the Tribal Department for the purpose of maintaining a registry of information concerning each case of child abuse reported under this Chapter.

(B) The central registry shall contain but shall not be limited to:

- (1) all information in any written report received under this Chapter;
- (2) record of the final disposition of the report, including services offered and services accepted;
- (3) the plan for rehabilitative treatment;
- (4) The name and identifying data, date, and circumstance of any person requesting or receiving information from the central registry;
- (5) Any other information which might be helpful in furthering the purposes of this Title.

(C) The Director of the Tribal Department shall appoint a director of the central registry who shall have charge of said registry. Subject to available appropriation, the director shall equip his office so that data in the central registry may be made available during non-business hours through the use of computer technology. Such computerized records shall be password coded and only department personnel, judges, justices, and law enforcement personnel shall have access to the password.

(D) After a child who is the subject of a report reaches the age of eighteen (18) years, access to his record under this Section shall be permitted only if a sibling or offspring of such child is before any person mentioned in section 503(B) and is a suspected victim of child abuse. The amount and type of information released shall depend upon the source of the report and shall be determined by regulations established by the director of the central registry. However, under no circumstances shall the information be released unless the person requesting such information is entitled thereto as confirmed by the director of the central registry and the information released states whether or not the report is founded or unfounded. A person given access to the names or other information identifying the subject of a report shall not divulge or make public any identifying information unless he is a Tribal District Attorney or other law enforcement official and the purpose is to initiate court action or unless he is the subject of a report.

(E) Unless an investigation of a report conducted pursuant to this Article determines there is some credible evidence of alleged abuse, all information identifying the subject of the report shall be expunged from the central registry forthwith. The decision to expunge the record shall be made by the director of the central registry based upon the investigation made by the Tribal Department or the Tribal law enforcement agency.

(F) In all other cases, the record of the reports to the central registry shall be sealed no later than ten (10) years after the child's eighteenth birthday. Once sealed, the record shall not otherwise be available unless the director of the central registry, pursuant to rules promulgated by the Department and upon notice to the subject of the report, gives his personal approval for an appropriate reason. In any case and at any time, the director may amend, seal, or expunge any record upon good cause shown and notice to the subject of the report.

(G) At any time the subject of a report may receive, upon request, a report of all information pertinent to the subject's case contained in the central registry, but the director of the central registry is authorized to prohibit the release of data that would identify the person who made the report or who cooperated in a subsequent investigation which he reasonably finds to be detrimental to the safety or interest of such person.

(H) At any time subsequent to the completion of the investigation, a subject of the report may request the director to amend, seal, or expunge the record of the report. If the director refuses to and does not act within a reasonable time, but in no event later than thirty (30) days after such request, the subject shall have the right to a fair hearing before the District Court to determine whether the record of the report in the central registry should be amended, sealed, or expunged on the grounds that it is inaccurate or it is being maintained in a manner inconsistent with this Article. The Tribal Department shall be given notice of the hearing. The burden in such a hearing shall be on the Tribal Department. In such hearings the fact that there was such a finding of child abuse or neglect shall be presumptive evidence that the report was substantiated.

(I) Written notice of any amendment, sealing, or expungement made pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be given to the subject of such report and to the Tribal Department. The latter, upon receipt of such notice, shall take similar action regarding such information in its files.

(J) Any person who willfully permits or who encourages the release of data or information contained in the central registry to persons not permitted access to such information by this Article shall be subject to a civil penalty not in excess of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) and any actual damages sustained.

(K) The central registry shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to encourage cooperation with other Tribes, states and the National Center on Child Abuse and Neglect.

(B) Disclosure of the name and address of the child and family and other identifying information involved in such reports shall be permitted only when authorized by a court for good cause. Such disclosure shall not be prohibited when there is a death of a suspected victim or child abuse or neglect and the death becomes a matter of public record, the subject of an arrest by a law enforcement agency, or the subject of the filing of a formal charge by a law enforcement agency.

(C) Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

(D) Only the following persons or agencies shall be given access to child abuse or neglect records and reports:

(1) the law enforcement agency or social services department investigating a report of known or suspected child abuse or neglect or treating a child or family which is the subject of the report;

(2) a physician who has before him a child whom he reasonably suspects to be abused or neglected;

(8) all members of the child protection team;

(9) the District Attorney and attorneys for the parties with protection for the identity of reporters and other appropriate persons when necessary;

The amount of type of information released shall depend upon the source of the report and shall be determined by regulations established by the director of the central registry. However, under no circumstances shall the information be released unless the person requesting such information is entitled thereto as confirmed by the director of the central registry and the information released states whether or not the report is founded or unfounded. A person given access to the names or other information identifying the subject of a report shall not divulge or make public any identifying information unless he is a Tribal District Attorney or other law enforcement official and the purpose is to initiate court action or unless he is the subject of a report.

Section 602. Licensing Foster Homes.

The Social Services Department pursuant to rules not inconsistent with this Act which it shall develop and file with the tribal Secretary's office, shall have the authority to license foster care homes for the care of children.

Section 603. Basic Standard for Foster Families.

In considering Indian foster parents the primary consideration should be the parents' capacity to provide love and understanding to a child or children in distress.

Section 604. Basic Requirements of Foster Families.

Foster families shall meet the following personal criteria:

(A) The age of foster parent(s) shall be a consideration only as it affects their physical capability, flexibility, and ability to care for a specific child.

(B) A written statement from a physician, regarding the foster parent(s) and their children's general health, specific illnesses, or disabilities shall be a routine part of the study-evaluation process. Foster parent(s) and all other adults and the children present in the home shall submit a written report verifying that they have taken tuberculin tests and have been found free of disease; other tests may be required as indicated.

(C) Physical handicaps of foster parent(s) shall be a consideration only as it affects their ability to provide adequate care to foster children or may affect an individual child's adjustment to the foster family. Cases shall be evaluated on an individual basis with the assistance of a medical consultant when indicated.

Section 605. Income of Foster Families.

(A) When the agency does not have a plan for paying foster families a salary, it shall determine that the foster family's income is stable and sufficient for the maintenance of the family and reimbursement for the foster family's own expenses.

(B) Employment of foster parent(s) outside the home:

(1) in two-parent homes it is preferable, in most instances, that both foster parents shall not be employed outside the home so that one parent is available for the parenting that the child requires. The agency shall make decisions regarding such situations on the basis of what is the best interest of the child.

(2) When both parents in a two-parent home and when single parents are employed, it is preferable that the home be used for school age children, and only when there are suitable plans (approved by the Agency) for care and supervision of the child after school and during the summer while parent(s) are at work.

(B) Foster homes shall meet zoning and housing requirements and/or codes as set by the public safety department for individual family dwellings.

(C) Physical standards for the foster home shall be set according to individual living standards for the community in which the foster home is located; these standards shall be sufficient to assure a degree of comfort which will provide for the well-being of the family and its self-respect in the community in which it resides.

(D) Comfort and privacy:

(1) It is preferable for no more than two children to share sleeping rooms.

(2) The sharing of sleeping rooms by children of opposite sexes is undesirable, especially for foster children who may be experiencing difficulties in the development of their sexual identities, attitudes and behavior.

(3) Children, other than infants and during emergencies (illness), shall not share sleeping quarters with adults in the household.

(4) Individual space shall be provided for the child's personal possessions.

Section 702. Purpose of Adoptions

The purpose of an adoption is to establish a formal and legal family relationship between two or more persons which after adoption, shall exist as if the parties were born into the adoptive relationship by blood. Adoptions pursuant to this Act shall be so recognized by every agency and level of the Government except in eligibility for enrollment determinations which shall continue to be based upon biological parentage.

Section 703. Types of Adoptions

There shall be three types of adoptions recognized by this Tribe, namely:

- (A) Statutory adoptions under Tribal law entered into pursuant to Subchapter A of this Chapter.
- (B) Statutory adoptions under the laws of some other Tribe, State, or Nation having jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter.
- (C) Traditional adoptions which may be for the purpose of establishing any traditionally allowed family relationship between any persons, and which shall be governed by the Tribal Common Law until such time as the proper procedures for such adoptions are written down as a part of the Tribal Code at which time traditional adoptions shall be governed by such procedure. Unless otherwise specifically provided by Tribal statute, traditional adoptions create a particular stated family relationship between persons for all purposes other than enrollment and the probate of decedents estates.

Section 704. In Camera Determination of Enrollment Eligibility

Whenever a parent, whether biological or adoptive, has expressed a desire that the name of the parent or the original or adoptive name of the child and the child's relationship to themselves or others remain confidential, and a question arises as to the eligibility of the child for enrollment as a citizen and member of the Tribe, the Court is authorized to receive from any source such information as may be necessary for a determination of the eligibility of such child for enrollment, to review such information in camera, and to enter its order declaring whether or not the child is eligible for enrollment and the child's blood quantum or other necessary non-identifying enrollment eligibility criteria. In doing so, the Court shall be provided with a complete Tribal roll for the necessary period(s), and shall seal all records received to maintain their confidentiality of the parties. If the Court determines that such child is eligible for enrollment, it shall enter its order declaring said fact and the Tribal enrollment officers shall accept such order as conclusive proof of the eligibility of the child for enrollment and enroll the child accordingly. If the Court determines that such child is not eligible for enrollment, it shall enter its order accordingly, and the Tribal enrollment officers shall accept such order as proof of the ineligibility of said child and refuse to enroll the child unless other or further qualifications for enrollment are shown.

The adoptive parent or parents and adoptive child shall appear personally at the hearing. All other persons whose consent is necessary to the adoption and who have not filed their written consents shall be duly notified and may appear or be represented by a member of the Bar of the Court, or by an unpaid personal representative at their request with the approval of the Court. The Judge shall examine all persons appearing separately, and if satisfied as to the suitability of the child for adoption, the financial ability and moral and physical fitness and responsibility of the adoptive parents, and that the best interest of the child will be promoted by the adoption, may enter a final decree of adoption, or may place the child in the legal custody of the petitioners for a period of not more than six months prior to entering a final decree of adoption, or if the Court is satisfied that the adoption will not be in the best interests of the child, the petition shall be denied and the child's guardian instructed to arrange suitable care for the child, and the Court may request the Tribal agencies, Federal agencies, or other agencies to provide services to assist in the placement and the care of the child, or, in case of need, refer the matter to the Tribal Department and District Attorney for the purpose of determining whether an involuntary juvenile petition should be filed.

Section 720. Report and Final Decree of Adoption

The Court may enforce such visitation rights and make orders thereto at any time after timely filing of an application therefore. Notice of such application shall be served upon the adoptive parents as a summons is served.

No juvenile proceeding in which a final order has already been entered shall be effected by this Act. Any juvenile proceeding in progress as of the effective date of this Act shall be modified so as to comply with the amendments herein set out, and the Court shall liberally allow such amendments to the pleadings as are necessary so as to comply with the amendments herein set out. (History: Amended by Resolution I-88-15, October 15, 1987; Amended by Resolution I-90-10, October 31, 1989.)
