LAUGH FOR THE DAY

Fastest Indian Father

Two young Indian boys were bragging about how fast their Fathers are. One stands tall and boasts, 'My Dad is so fast that He can shoot a deer with an arrow and get to it before it drops to the ground! The second boy says, 'Wow that is fast', then says 'Well my Dad works for the Tribe and he's so fast that he gets off work at five and he's home at four thirty!'

TONKAWAS HOST INTERTRIBAL FUN-DAY

Above: Crystal Springer throwing the shot-put like a pro, and taking the win with the furthest throw.

Below: Native Athletes getting ready for Tug-O-War

Intertribal Funday is an annual event marking a day of fun , games, and intertribal socializing. Whichever tribe wins the event determines where the next Funday will take place the following year, and this year the Tonkawa Tribe hosted the event. Many events took place, first a fun-walk to start the day of tribal Olympics. Other events included softball, basketball, horseshoe tournament, shot-put, disc-golf, golf (longest drive, closest to pin), tug-o-war, sack races, ring toss, pie-eating contest, meatpie eating contest, and even a piggy-back race.

The tribes who participated came from the surrounding areas and consisted of the Iowa Tribe, Kaw Tribe, Otoe-Missouria Tribe, Pawnee Tribe, Ponca Tribe, and Tonkawa Tribe. Tonkawa Tribe won the event and the Kaw Tribe will be next year’s host.

I would like to encourage all tribal members, old and young, to maintain a healthy lifestyle so that we will be next year’s winners!

For tribal members who could not attend this year's meeting were still able to see the meeting via the internet with an online live-stream audio/video session. This year IT utilized the internet so that people could still view the meeting without actually having to be there. This proved to be very helpful especially for those tribal members living out-of-state. This is just one way the Iowa Tribe is reaching out to keep their members informed.

Departments from the Iowa Tribe Complex handed out goodies to tribal members. Tribal members received T-shirts, "Iowa Tribe" labeled wind-shield visors, "Iowa Tribe" carry-bags, "Iowa Tribe" pens, Cimarron Casino Free-play, and a few other things. Thanks to all departments for their efforts.

Once again, Congratulations to all the winning candidates!

Edmond JOM students visit Iowa Tribe of Oklahoma

It was field trip day for Edmond JOM Thursday June 10th and Iowa Tribal headquarters was the destination. Students took a tour of the Bah-Kho-Je complex on a warm sunny afternoon. Students took a tour throughout the Police & Fire Department, then to the Whitecloud building, and then were introduced to the Horse Equine program with Ken McClellan.

Edmond JOM students gathered in the Whitecloud building to hear some words of encouragement from tribal elder Joyce Miller-Brown and tribal chairman Janice Rowe-Kurak. There was a total of 48 students who visited.

Sydna Yellowfish is the Edmond Indian Education coordinator.

Ken McClellan and a few other riders talked to the students about the Equine program and its importance to the loway people. They also talked about rider safety and were also invited to come back and take a ride with friends or family.

IOWA TRIBE AT RED EARTH POW-WOW

Iowa Tribe's Equine Program attended the Red Earth Parade in Oklahoma City on Friday June 18th. The 2010 Iowa Tribal Princess, Shayla Miller rode in her tribal regalia and was accompanied by Ken McClellan, Equine Manager. The two lead horsemen carried the Iowa tribal flag – Dylan Prince, and the American flag – Berywn Moses, with five other horsemen from the Equine Program. Other entries from the Iowa Tribe were then led by the Iowa Tribal Police Department: The Chairman, Janice Rowe-Kurak rode upon a convertible, courtesy of _____, a float sponsored by the Enterprise Department and Powwow Committee carried several members of the tribe and their guests, including some elders and other Red Earth participants, and bringing up the end of the Tribe's representation to the Parade was the Iowa Tribe's Fire and Public Safety Department.

This was a combined effort of all the departments that chose to participate in this year's Red Earth Parade. The Business Committee and the Tribal Administrator allowed this activity, so for several weeks the departments have been gearing up for this event. Our OES Director – Vicky Kujawa, Equine Manager – Ken McClellan, Sonny Goodeagle, and Shayla Miller have been training and practicing with the horses, getting them in preparedness for this huge event. The horses did really well, so we commend, Vicky and the Equine Program for all their hard work these past two months. They have made our People very proud. Last, but not least is a huge thank you to Dan Small for his expertise driving of the Enterprises big one-ton flat bed truck and hauling their long flat bed trailer for the Float. He did a marvelous job and was very safety conscious.

This was a wonderful experience for all of us, and we truly enjoyed the outcome, despite the long hours of training and practice, the early morning departure on that day, getting organized when we arrived and semi-decorating the float, and enduring the Oklahoma heat. But, it was Great!!

Plans are getting underway to be in the Pawnee Homecoming Parade July 3rd at noon in Pawnee, Oklahoma, and during the annual Sac & Fox Powwow at Stroud the 2nd weekend of July. Zack Butler stated they were having a Parade in Stroud during that week-end. And, of course they are looking forward to the American Indian Exposition in Anadarko, Oklahoma in August. That Parade is usually on Monday at 10:00 or so, and on that last Saturday.

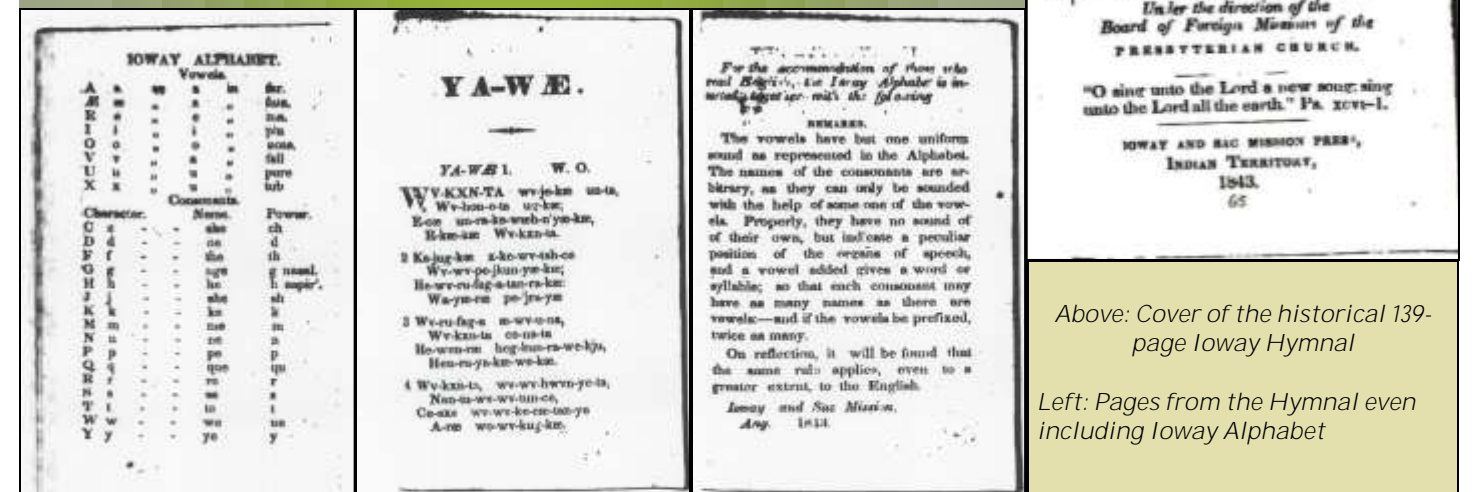

During this year's elections, kids got to enjoy some fun in the sun. Iowa Tribe provided some entertainment with waterslides and horseback riding.

New Treasure at the Iowa Tribe Library – Copy of 1843 Ioway Hymnal
